DARING ROBBERY

Five Men Armed with Revolvers Board a Third Avenue Car.

They Brutally Assault and Rob a Passenger.

THE GANG MAKE "GOOD THEIR ESCAPE.

A bold and successful robbery occurred last night on board a Third avenue car, which for the daring manner in which it was executed has seldom been equalled. Car No. 123 left the Harlem depot at thirty minutes after nine o'clock, having on board about forty passengers, men, women and children, who were returning from a picnic at Meirose. It was raining at the time and they buddled close ogether within, leaving the platforms quite deserted.
The weather did not, however, interfere with their determination to continue the day's frolic, and the air unged with their songs and loud conversation. It is the custom of the company to have a man sta tioned at the Harlem depot whose business it is to ollect from the conductors each evening the Third avenue line and on the crosstown cars which run through 125th street to Manhattanville. The money so collected is placed in a satchel and carted by the receiver to the main depot at the corner of Sixty-fith street and Third avenue. Mr. Joseph V. Latetra, an old and trusted employe, who has been in the company's service twenty-five years, has for a long time been entrusted with the work of collecting the money from the conductors on the Crosshis accounts and placing the receipts, which impounted to about $150, mostly in sliver, in his leather bag, took a seat in the rear end of car No. 123 for the purpose of riding to the depot at Sixty-fifth insonned to about $150, mostly in silver, in his leather bag, took a seat in the rear end of car No. 123 for the purpose of riding to the depot at Sixty-fith street.

The car proceeded on its journey, the passengers, who included a number of members of the Eleventh regiment in uniform, continuing their singing and beasterous behavior. Following closely in the wake of the car was a podier's wagon, in which were soated five rough leoking fellows, such as are usually seen in charge of such vehicles. The conductor of the car, Charles Orr, figst noticed the wagon at 110th street, but paid no attention to it, as it is an ordinary occurrence for wagoners to follow the track on their way down to the markets. When near the corner of Ninety-fourth' street the five eccupants of the wagon suddenly jumped to the street and, with drawn revolvers, entered the car by the rear platform while the conductor was in the forward part of the car collecting the passengers' fares. The object of their attack was Mr. Lafetra, and three of them surrounded him while the remaining two guarded the car steps. One of the three who entered the car, setzed the satched which hay in Mr. Lafetra's lap, while the other two assaulted him with the butts of their pastols. He held firmly to the bag, but was so violently beaton that he relaxed his hold. The inmates of the car, when they realized what was going on, increased the noise and continuous that already existed, and the lady passengers, alarmed at the slight of drawn revolvers, screamed and ran toward the front of the car, nemming in the conductor so that he could not the time render no assistance to Mr. Lafetra, who was being robbed before his yee. Refore he reliaquished possession of the bag containing the money Mr. Lafetra was knocked senseless and bleeding to the foor of the car. The conductor as soon as possible forced his way through the crowd, and reached the roboty, ran out and jumped from the car, shouling to their companious at they did so "Ali right." The two who had stood guard follow

Although the robbery occurred between nine and ton o'clock it was seventeen minutes after midnight before the Police Central Office was notified of the occurrence, and then the report merely stated the fact of the robbery. No description of the robber has as yet been turnished, and there is at present but little hope that they will be captured.

PREVENTION OF CRIME.

The Eighth Ward Auxiliary Society for the Prevention of Crime held a meeting at the Spring Street Presbyterian Church last evening. The Rev. A. H. Moment presided, and delivered the first address. He spoke warmly and enthusiastically of the good aiready produced by the present revival in the cause of temperance, and was confident that in a year to come, if the efforts of those interested in the cause were kept up, the society would be lauded as one of the great benefithe society would be lauded as one of the great beneficent institutions of the times. He looked upon the upholding of the cause of temperance as so closely allied to the preaching of Christianity that he could not separate their work. There was no country, he said, where the evils of intemperance so fully developed themselves as in this, and that, therefore, the neople should support by svery means in their power the efforts made to suppress the iquor traffic and try to obtain a strict enforcement of the laws regulating it.

PFINGST MONDAY.

The Germans of this city, in spite of the unpleasant weather, made a holiday of yesterday, it being Pfingst Monday. Parades, festivale, picnies and athletic exhibitions from early morning until sun-All over the east side of the town where the Germans reside flags and banners were displayed in abundance, and the Bowery and streets adjacent were alled with uniformed members of Teutonic societies. The Turn Vereins, together with all the singing clubs and social organizations, were out in full torce. New York Turn Verein assembled at Jones' Woods and indulged in athletic exercises to their hearts' content. The Bloomingdale Turn Verein field a picnic at Lion Park; the Aligemeiner Bund did likewise at Washington Park, and the Eleventh regiment paraded in the morn-ing in remembrance of their great march of 1862 in Virginia. At the park foot of Third street, Hoboken, the Mozart Macanerchor met, and at Hamilton Park, Sixty-eighth street and Second avenue, the German Social Reform Club held its lestivities. The German Deutseber Landwehr Verein went to Staten Island early in the day, where the hours were passed in innocent sport.

In innocent sport.

St. Nicholas Club celebrated the festival at their new club house. No. 12 East Twenty-ninth street, last evening. The rooms were handsomerly decorated with flowers and pictures in honor of the occasion, and notwithstanding the rain the attendance was very large. Among the guests were General Hancock, Cornelius Vanderolli, Robert Cambridge Livingstone, Judge Abraham R. Lawrence, Edward Schell, Register John Fitch, John C. Mild, Darlisle Norwood, Jr.; Robert G. Remsen and many others.

The festival of the occasion is thus described in a sircular printed by the club and circulated among the members:—

circular printed by the club and circulated among the members:—

IN OLDEN TIME.

"Pinkster" is the Dutch word for Whitsunday or Pentecest. Among our forefathers Pinkster feast Issued a whole week. The slaves were then at liberty to froit to their heart's centent, and the masters promoted the Irin and took their children to ace it. On Whit-Monday all manner of chows were exhibited in the Park and Chatham squsre. In Albany Capitol Ifill was for years called Pinkster flower was too Hay certain the Park and Chatham squsre. A RAILROAD' CONFERENCE.

LEADING RAILBOAD MEN TO MEET COMMIS-SIONER GUILFORD-UNIFORM BATES OF

There will be an important railway conference at the New Windsor Hotel this afternoon at three o'clock. All the leading trunk lines, including the Erie, New York Central, Penusylvania, and Baitimore and Ohio will be represented, and there will also be representatives present from the leading Western roads. The Conference has been called to receive the first report of the recently ap-pointed Commissioner of Western Rallways, N. Gull-ford, of Chicago. The office, it will be remembered, was created three months ago yesterday for the purpose of determining and maintaining equitable and uniform rates of freight from competitive points in the West to the scaboard. It is understood, upon the very best authority, that Commissioner Guillord will report to the Conference that he has failed to accomplish the object for which the office was created and for which he receives a salary of $10,000 a year. Several of the Western roads, ne will explain, first violated the compact, and although he made every effort he found himself powerloss to protect the interests of those companies who had maintained the tariff until the rival roads began "cutting." The office has, however, enabled the leading lines to be acquainted thoroughly with all statistical information in relation to freight movements that could possibly be of interest or value to them. Three is every probability that steps will be taken by the Conference to invest the Commissioner with such authority as will enable him to compet the Western companies to comply with the compact and prevent any violations on their part in the future. The action is of the greatest importance to the trunk roads, and there is every indication that a united effort will be made to clothe the Commissioner with authority to carry into effect the objects designed to be accomplished when the office was created.

IMPORTERS AND REFINERS.

The Committee on Ways and Means of the House of Representatives have appointed to-day, at noon, for a conference with the sugar importers and refiners. The New York delegation left last night, and will be joined at Washington by delegations from Philadelphia, Boston, Baltimore, Richmond; Portland, Me., and other places.

ANTI-TAMMANY.

MEETING IN GLASS HALL-THE ELECTORAL FRAUDS DENOUNCED-WORKINGMEN AND THEIR RIGHTS DEFENDED.

A meeting of the anti-Tammany democracy of the A meeting of the anti-fanimary democracy of the Eighteenth Assembly district was held last night in Glass Hall, Thirty-lourth street, near Third avenue. The assemblage was composed, with but lew exceptions, of workingmen, who patiently awaited the opening of the meeting. About half-past eight o'clock Mr. William Minnick was called to the chair, when Mr. Theodore Tominson was introduced and made a speech in behalf of the workingmen.

The following resolutions were offered by Mr. White

The following resolutions were offered by Mr. White and unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That public thanks are due to the patrictic men who originated and, in the ince of the most varied and determined opposition, are earrying through the investigation of the electoral franks in Louisiana and Fierida, through which Kutherford B. Hayes, who was not elected, was invisibled as 'resident.

Resolved, I hat the revelations already made before the committee criminating the Secretary of the Treasury by his own testimony, and the republican Senator from Uhio by his unwillingness to testify, of participation in those frances, form results which leave no room to doubt that this investigation deserves to be regarded as a necessary and vainable agent in preserving the government of the United States and securing republican liberty to future generations in this country.

Resolved, That we view with anxiety the fact that the chief and aimost the only support of Mr. Hayes is now found among Southern democrats, so called, who but a lew years since were arrayed in arms in the endawor to destroy the government of the United States, and among their former sympathiless.

Resolved, That the idea that any man can continue to be President after it is universally known and acknowling the states of the president after it is universally known and acknowling the states of the state of th be President after it is universally known and acknowing edged that he was never elected is worthly of none but an inasne mind.

Resoived, That this investigation should be pushed to its full consequences, that the guilty conspirators should not be left in possession of the government, and, since fraud vitiages every title, and since no man can be President except by election according to the constitution, that Rutherford B. Hayes and William A. Wheeler should be expelled and Samuel J. Hiden and Thomas A. Hendricks should occupy the nosts to which they were assigned by a majority of the people.

Mr. Thomas J. Creamer was then introduced, and in a brief speech advised the workingmen of New York to come to the front in solid phainax and push politicians to the background.

Mr. James O'Brien was then introduced and said that the chief difficulty they had to contend with was the office-nolder, and it was the most difficult matter to get rid of him. The paid orators—the flowery orators of Tammany fall—were everywhere doing all in their power to controvert the hoocat endeavors of the workingman.

A NEW BISHOP.

At Trinky Church this morning Dr. George F. Seymour, dean and professor of the General Theological Seminary, will be consecrated bishop of the discesse of Springfield, lil. The attendance of clergy in their ecclesiastical robes, and of laymen is expected to be very large, as it is twenty years since a similar ceremony took place in this church. Bishop Potter will be assisted by eight or ten other bishops in the consecration, the senior bishop being unable to attend. The body of the church will be divided off for the clergy and laymen, while the bishops will occupy seats within the communion rails. The choir will be strengthened and the attar will be handsomely decorated with flowers. Bishop Lay, of Easton, Pa., will preach the consecration sermon.

The converted Brahmin, Schereschewsky, was the last consecrated bishop in this city, and prior to that last consecrated bishop in this city, and prior to that ceremony Bishop Whittaker, of Nevada, was con-firmed in St. George's Church.

Inspector Steele yesterday seized 2,800 contraband cigars on board the steamer San Jacinto, just rrived from Cientucgos.

UNCLE SAM'S WARDS.

The books of the Pension Office show that Colonel Carton has made the following disbursements:-June 4, $37,911 30; June 5, $27,016 48; June 6, $28,661 26; June 7, $29,075 29; June 8, $26,260, and yesterday, about $25,060, making a total of nearly $174,000.

SUIT FOR AN ESTATE.

A motion was granted yesterday in the Kings County Court modifying an injunction restraining the against Mary C. Shea. Mr. Bisbce claims to be the husband of Mary Collins, deceased, grand daughter of the late Timothy Shoa. The deceased lady was entitled to a share in her grandfather's cetate, which she never received. On the part of Mra. Shes, it is contended, that she purchased the interest which the deceased Mary Collins had in the estate, and that the deceased's claim was cancelled for valuacie considera-

EIGHT YEARS' SAVINGS GONE.

Mrs. Mary Crawiqrd, living at the corner of Houston street and South Fifth avenue, was in the Jeffer-son Market Police Court yesterday, and, amid sobbing and wailing, told a pitiable story of the loss of $105. She charged Vincent Lecarbonite, of No. 96 South Fifth avenue, with naving stolen the money from her room. The amount, she said, was the savings of eight years of hard and continuous labor. She saved it, penny by penny, only after much hardeling and deprivation. The money was conceased in her mat-tress, and, leaving the room for a short period, she returned to find it gone. The prisoner had called on ner only a short time previous, and was in the room during her absence. Judge Murray held him in $1,000 to answer.

THE SLEEP OF DEATH,

On Sunday afternoon a man went on board the schooner Jane, lying at Provest's dock, Long Island City, and fell, asleep. The captaju of the schooner saw him rell overboard. The man did not appear on the surface and the capitain reported the drowning to the police. Yesterday the body was recovered and recognized as that of Thomas Fagan, a laborer resid-ing at the Wallabout. Coroner Denier took charge of the body.

LOVE AND LAUDANUM.

Lilly Lent, the remantic girl who took poison in company with Benjamin Smith, one week ago, has been induced by her parents to proceed against Smith. She made a formal complaint agricst bim before Judge Guck yesterday morning charging Senjamia with administering poison to her with intent to kill. The examination is set down for Wednesday.
